

APACALL Webinar 2022

Date & Time: Fri, 6 May 2022, 11:00 am – 6:30 pm AEST
(see the Time Zone Conversion below)

Format: Online
(a Zoom link to be sent to those who register)

Presentation Type: 15-minute Live Talk + 5-minute Q & A
(for each session)

This webinar explores trends, issues, and challenges we face in computer-assisted language learning (CALL) and technology-enhanced language teaching (TELT). It is designed to support you in understanding and implementing CALL and TELT and developing your research strengths.

[Call for Proposals]

APACALL invites proposals for presentations related to CALL/TELT. Proposals for 15-minute talks (consisting of your 10-word title, 50-word abstract and available hours between 11:00 am and 6:30 pm AEST) should be submitted to the APACALL Webmaster (webmaster@apacall.org) via email by 31 March 2022. Successful applicants will be notified by 15 April 2022 and a full webinar program will be available on the APACALL website from 25 April 2022.

The webinar is open to everyone (both members and non-members of APACALL). If you wish to present a talk at the webinar, however, you need to be an APACALL member first. Non-members are welcome to join APACALL (free membership) by completing and submitting a membership application form through the APACALL website (<https://www.apacall.org/>).
